RECORDS CLOSE FOR 16 PLAYERS TONIGHT

Tonight's game brings to a close the 1949 football season, which, in the eyes of many has been the greatest in the history of our school. Though the Generals had their ups and their downs this season, no one can say that they were not playing their best and giving all they had in every game.

Statistically, the 1949 Generals may not be the best team in the school's history; but, in the minds of students and fans of today, the Generals stack up with the best.

Tonight's game, besides ending the football season, brings down the curtain on the high school careers of sixteen members of the Wooster squad. These boys, playing in their last game, will long remember this season, and you can bet they'll be out there tonight, going all out to make this last game, their best.

The sixteen seniors, are:

DICK BARTHOLOMEW — 187 pound tackle. Used mostly on defense. A rugged lineman.

BILL BUTTERBAUGH—157 pound end. Used on both offense and defense. A determined ballplayer.

RON CALABRIA — 154 pound halfback. A "swivel-hipped" triple-threat back, he has scored 66 points. A letterman.

RAY COCCIA — 184 pound tackle. A fine defensive lineman with speed. A vicious tackler.

TONY DIGIACOMO — 158 pound tackle. A rugged offensive lineman and an excellent downfield blocker. A letterman.

EV FRY — 192 pound guard. A stalwart lineman on offensive and defense who knows his job and does it. A two year letterman.

DICK GRAHAM — 158 pound quarterback. An excellent field general with plenty of deception. A fine passer.

LES JOHNSON—162 pound end. A fine player on both offense and defense, who can always be counted on. A letterman.

JOHNNY LERCH — 146 pound quarterback. A fine, steady ballplayer with plenty of guts. His specialty is holding for placements.

BENNY MASSARO — 157 pound halfback. A fine runner with plenty of speed and deception. Ben has tallied 90 points. A letterman.

JACK PALMER — 165 pound fullback. A fine passer, runner, and kicker. Jack has contributed 90 points to Wooster's attack. Co-Captain and letterman.

DICK PARKER — 158 pound end. A good, steady player on both offense and defense. A good pass receiver.

FRED SMITH — 161 pound tackle. Used exclusively on offense. A vicious blocker, especially downfield.

JOHN SMITH — 164 pound center. A first class lineman, and sparkplug of the Generals. Co-Captain and letterman.

DICK SMITH — 152 pound halfback. A fine runner on offense and an excellent pass defender. Dick is also a fine passer.

DONLEY SWINEHART — 166 pound guard. A hard charging lineman, and a clean, hard blocker and tackler.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE GENERALS

With tonights game bringing to a close the football season, the Wooster Generals will be out to end the year in grand style tonight by making this their best game of the year.

In nine games, the Generals have rolled up the astounding total of 336 points, and have yielded only 73 to their opponents.

The individual scoring is divided among seven players.

Player	TD	EP	Total
Palmer	15	0	90
Massaro	15	0	90
Calabria	11	0	66
Hershberger	2	34	46
Smith	4	0	24
Graham	2	0	12
Landes	1	0	6

YELLOW JACKETS INVADE FOR LAST TILT

Tonight the Wooster Generals attempt to close their 1949 season unbeaten, and directly in their path are the Mount Vernon Yellow Jackets.

Coach Dwight Bupp's invaders are probably the strongest team in the state of Ohio with a one win, eight loss record which they will bring into Wooster tonight.

Mount Vernon lost its first game of the season to a strong Coshocton eleven 7-6. Coshocton was edged by Wooster in the Football Preview 13-7.

The Yellow Jackets won their second 1949 tussle from New Boston 47-0. Since then, they have lost seven straight games.

The first of those seven games was to Columbus Bexley 21-0. They were smashed by Upper Arlington, unbeaten and once-tied this year, 47-0 in the next game.

Then followed a 13-12 loss to Columbus St. Mary's, followed by a 13-10 defeat at the hands of Delaware.

Columbus Grandview, also unbeaten and once-tied this season; and the team which tied Upper Arlington, had a rough time with the Yellow Jackets before winning 21-9. Newark turned on the steam to smash Mount Vernon 39-0.

Last week, New Philadelphia honored its coach Bill Kidd by smashing Mount Vernon 33-7.

Mount Vernon will feature its All-Ohio halfback Dick Shuff in tonight's game. Shuff is easily the outstanding player on the Mount Vernon team.

Last year previous to the Wooster-Mount Vernon game, Shuff had scored 11 touchdowns in six games. All he did in the Wooster game was score four touchdowns for 24 points as the Yellow Jackets defeated the Generals 27-23.

Wooster jumped to a quick 9-0 lead in the first quarter of that game. Shuff took off on a long touchdown run and Wooster led 9-7.

The Generals moved into a 16-7 lead with another T.D. before Shuff broke loose again, 16-14.

Mount Vernon's ace back ran 55 yards to the Wooster four-yard line to set up a third touchdown. He scored it on the next play, 21-16. Wooster once more moved ahead 23-21, but Shuff turned the trick again, and the Yellow Jackets won 27-23.

Two seasons ago at Wooster, Coach Gene Coleman made his debut as a Wooster coach, and saw his gridders stopped by Mount Vernon 12-0.

Only once in eight meetings has Wooster managed to defeat Mount Vernon in football.

Tonight Shuff should again be the Mount Vernon spark plug. He is the top runner in the backfield, and does most of the ball-carrying.

The Yellow Jackets will probably do a lot of passing, and Shuff will do most of the throwing. He also is the leading punter on the team.

Mount Vernon runs most of its plays from a T-formation.

This is the final game of the season for the Yellow Jackets and the Generals.

Mount Vernon High School marching band will appear at tonight's game with the Wooster High School band. The Mount Vernon band appeared at the Cleveland Browns-Buffalo Bill professional football game, and put on a successful show, delighting the crowd at the game.

BASKETBALL PREVIEW

Let's Follow the Generals From the Gridiron to the Gym Floor

After tonight's final game of the 1949 football season with Mount Vernon, Wooster high school will turn its attention to the 1949-50 basketball season.

Coach Ken Zuercher is starting his third season as head coach of basketball at Wooster. He will be assisted this year by Jack Behringer. Coach Behringer replaces Gene Coleman, who will assume other duties during the winter. Al Johnson will retain his duties as Junior High coach.

Last year, Wooster High basketball combine won three games and lost sixteen during the regular season. It won one game, before being eliminated from the district tournament.

Since Coach Zuercher took over as head basketball coach, Wooster basketball teams have won 16 games and lost 28.

The Generals began drills for the coming season this past Monday. These first prictices were only for boys not on the football squad. A large number of candidates reported for the first practices, especially from the freshman class.

Five lettermen will be back at Wooster this year. They are Elliot Tunison, junior forward; Wayne Hershberger, junior guard; Ronnie Calabria, senior guard; Dick Disipio, senior guard; and Lester Johnson, senior forward and center.

Practice for the complete squad, including varsity football players, will begin next Monday, Nov. 28.

The Generals will play an eighteen game schedule this season. The season opens with a Central Buckeye League game with Rittman at Rittman, December 9. The first home game is with Loudonville, in a Céntral Buckeye League clash slated for December 16.

Wooster will play nine home games, and nine games away during this season. Eight of the contests will be in the Central Buckeye League. That league embraces Wooster, Rittman, Loudonville, Millersburg, and Orrville, with all teams playing each other on a home and home basis.

The entire basketball schedule is as follows:

Friday—Dec. 9—Rittman (Away).
Tuesday—Dec. 13—Buchtel (Away).
Friday—Dec. 16—Loudonville (Here).
Friday—Dec. 23—Ashland (Here).
Tuesday—Dec. 27—Wadsworth (Away).
Friday—Jan. 6—Orrville (Away).
Tuesday—Jan. 10—Canton Lincoln (Away).
Friday—Jan. 13—Open.
Tuesday—Jan. 17—Shelby (Here).
Friday—Jan. 20—Millersburg (Here).
Tuesday—Jan. 24—New Philadelphia (Away).

THE ALMA MATER

Oh, come, let's sing our Wooster's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
And for the school we hold most high,
We'll raise our voices to the sky.
To her, we pledge our hearts and hands,
And loyal to her each one stands;
Preserve her honor, far and near
Because we love her, Wooster dear.

W. H. S. PEP SONG

We're gonna march, march, march, right down the field,
And Wooster High will never, never yield,
We're gonna cheer, cheer, cheer, with all our might,
Our boys will do their best to win this game tonight,
We're gonna put the Blue and Gold on high,
And then we'll raise our voices to the sky,
We're gonna put old Mt. Vernon on its back,
It's in the sack—Wooster High.

The GENERALS Are Back With JOHN And JACK

WOOSTER HIGH INTRODUCES ITS LETTERMEN

JOHN SMITH — Co-Captain

John Smith, a senior is following the tradition of the Smith family. Being the last of eight boys in his family, all of whom played football at Wooster High, Johnnie has quite a few steps to follow in. A 164 pound center, John is pivot man on offense, and a line backer on defense.

This is his second year as first string center and Johnnie hopes to make it his best year.

Generally conceded to be one of the finest tacklers and blockers on the team, John will be trying for his second letter.

JACK PALMER — Co-Captain

Jack Palmer, hard driving fullback of the Wooster squad, would undoubtedly be in quest of his third letter this year had it not been for an injury received before the 1948 season.

Jack, a letter winner as a sophomore at quarterback, sustained a knee injury just prior to the beginning of last season which kept him out of action the entire year.

Although he still wears a knee brace while in action, Jack has come back strong this year. Some 3000 football fans can bear witness to that for they saw him romp for three touchdowns last Friday against Painesville.

Jack weighs 165 and can pass and kick as well as run.

LES JOHNSON

Les Johnson, a senior and a letterman, has nailed down the post of first string left end.

Les, a three sport man, is a standout in baseball and basketball as well as football.

Usually in the game on both offense and defense, Les is a good pass receiver as well as being a good runner, a fact he has proved on several occasions on end-around plays.

Weighing in at 162 pounds, Les is out to win his sixth letter in three Wooster High school sports, his second in football.

RONNIE CALABRIA

Ronnie Calabria, the only member of the backfield who was a member of last season's opening game backfield, will be running from his familiar right halfback spot again this season.

Ronnie, a letterman and a senior, is noted for his dodging, snakey hipped style of running which netted him a total of 30 points last season.

Besides being a fine runner, Ronnie is a good left-handed passer, as well as a fine punter.

Weighing 154 pounds, Ronnie is a member of a backfield which many consider one of the fastest at Wooster High in years.

BENNY MASSARO

Benny Massaro, fleet left halfback of the Wooster High squad is well on the road to a new scoring record for individual players at Wooster if last week's performance is a sample of what's to come.

Benny tallied four touchdowns in last week's victory over Painesville and was literally all over the field as he ran enemy defenders wild trying to stop him.

A senior and a letterman, Ben is aided while on the field by contact lenses which are placed directly over the eye balls underneath the eye lids.

Benny weighs 158 pounds and is the fastest man on the squad.

EVERETT FRY

Everett Fry, a 192 pound guard, is the heaviest man on the squad and one of the most rugged linemen Wooster High has seen in the last few years.

Ev, the only two-year letterman, is in the game on both offense and defense, and many times has broken through the line to stop enemy ball-carriers almost dead in their tracks.

Since this is his last year of high school competition, Ev plans to make those who have played against him not forget the big left guard from W. H. S.

TONY DI GIACOMO

Tony Di Giacomo, one of the seven returning lettermen, is back at the position at which he won his letter last year, left tackle.

Although Tony weighs only 158 pounds, his fine all-around play has gained him the job of offensive tackle.

A senior this year, Tony is out to make this his best year of high school football.

WILDCATS OPEN SEASON AGAINST GENERALS

A rugged band of Wildcats from Canton South High School invade Maurer Field tonight to open an eight game schedule against a team of Wooster Generals fresh from a 45-18 win over Painesville Red Raiders in their inaugural game last week.

Generals and Wildcats will be meeting for the fourth time in as many years tonight, with the visitors holding a 2-1 edge in victories. In 1946, Canton Township, as the suburban high school was then known, defeated Generals 3-0 at Wooster. When the teams met the next year, Wooster scored its first triumph under Coach Gene Coleman, trouncing Township 27-0. Last season, Canton had all the best of the going, but just edged out the Generals 7-6.

Coach Charles (Red) Ash of the visiting Wildcats will be putting one of the top coaching records in the state on the line starting tonight, but this fine past record does not seem to be in too much danger this year for South is expected to come up with one of its traditional powerhouses.

Canton has only three lettermen back from last year's team that won eight, lost one, and tied one, but these lettermen, along with some very capable reserves from last year's team should turn in another good record. Back to pace a top-flight backfield are 210 pound fullback Leroy Holben, and 190 pound halfback Ed Pullin. The third monogram winner is 180 pound guard Tom Leo.

Holben and Pullin carry much of the running burden for South. The majority of the passing is done by Bill Brill, 145 pound sophomore halfback, and Danny Griffith, 125 pound sophomore, although Coach Ash believes that each back should be a passing threat and trains all his backs accordingly.

Holben, besides his running and passing duties, does most of the punting, kicks off, kicks extra points, calls offensive plays, and backs up the line on defense.

Last year, Canton South played three teams that were also met by the Generals. They defeated Ashland 33-0, while Wooster stopped the "A's" 34-6. They smothered Canton Central Catholic 25-0, Generals defeating Central 27-6. South also beat Orrville 19-13. Wooster turned that trick 38-12. Their only loss last year was to St. Clairsville 20-19. They were tied by Louisville 7-7.

This season, South again plays three Wooster foes. Two weeks from tonight, they meet Mansfield Madison, a Wooster opponent on November 4. They meet Orrville on October 21, while Wooster tackles the Red Riders on November 11. Generals meet Canton Central Catholic October 14, while South meets its traditional rival on November 11. Wildcats also meet Toronto, Cuyahoga Falls, Louisville, and St. Clairsville this season.

This will be the ninth year as head coach at South for "Red" Ash. A 1937 graduate of Ohio Northern, he got his masters degree at Columbia University. He coached three years at Haviland-Scott in Paulding county, where there was no football team. He went to West Alexandria for one season and turned out a football team that was unbeaten in eight games. Coming to Canton Township the next season, his gridders won five and dropped four. Football was dropped the next season, but continued in 1943.

His team was unbeaten that year, lost one game the next season, two in 1945, two in 1946, three in 1947, then one last year. His all-time coaching record is 58 wins, 14 losses and one tie. 50 of those victories were scored at Canton.

Ash's basketball teams are probably more noted than are the footballers. Two seasons ago, his Wildcats led by Roger Baker went to the state finals at Columbus, and barely missed upsetting the state champions from Findlay. South has always had a good basketball team, and has become known for it.

South will operate from two basic formations tonight. They use both the T and Short Punt formations. When they go on defense, Coach Ash substitutes much as Coach Gene Coleman of Wooser does, making about half a dozen changes.

South's starting line will be outweighed by Wooster, averaging 169 pounds per man. The backfield will average 173 pounds.

To The Girls --- How To Watch A Football Game

Husbands, fathers, brothers and even boy friends who are avid football fans have an ungentle way of answering your questions during tense moments of play. To avoid getting your feelings ruffled by an otherwise tender and considerate escort (who becomes a horse-voiced back-pounder at the kick-off), we will try to answer some questions. Needless to say, you cannot be made an expert in this limited space, but perhaps we can avoid your being shouted at with a brusque, "Why don'tcha watch the game?" Primer-like, we begin with the team. It is composed of 11 stalwarts. The line is thus: a center who passes the ball on each play to the backfield (and if he's not careful ends up on the bottom of the heap); two guards, right and left; two tackles, right and left, and two ends, right and left, whose jobs, using legal means of mayhem and assault, are to put the opposing players out of play.

In the backfield there's a quarterback who "generals" the team and calls the plays, a right and left halfback and a fullback, all of whom must be able to run, kick, pass and block on offensive plays and back up the line on defense (a coach's dream come true).

Now, see that pow-wow in mid-field just preceding the game? The captains meet and shake hands in a deceptively friendly manner, and a coin is spun to see who receives the ball first, and which goal which team is to defend. The kicking team places the ball on its own 40 yard line. The receiving team fans out behind its 40 yard line and smack! The game is on.

After the pile-up (which you'll see) the offensive team huddles (that's that little conference behind the line in which the quarterback tells the team the next play) and it's "First down, ten to go." In plain language that means first attempt to carry the ball 10 yards. Four attempts or downs are allowed the offensive team by plunging or pasing to gain 10 yards. If they fail, the ball goes to the opponents. That chain you will see those officials skip on to the field with occasionally is the official tape measure to measure close ones. The offensive team may punt (kick) the ball on the third or fourth attempt, or down, if they see they cannot make 10 yards, to keep from losing the ball in their own territory.

Its elementary (and easy) to glibly say the way to enjoy football is to "Follow the ball." And it's very true. Modern football depends greatly on deception or "A who's got the ball idea." If that big, tall 21, who is right there in the game chases the wrong guy, how can you be expected to know way up here? But we still say when you get accustomed to "following the ball" you will enjoy the game more.

Offense, of course, is the spectacular part of the game, so we'll have to skip the reams that could be written on defense, or maybe your husband will explain it (after the game, of course).

There are a number of offensive formations, the most popular being the T-formation. The line is balanced like this: E T G C G T E, with the quarterback immediately behid the C, the fullback behind the quarterback and the halves flanking the fullback, thus forming a T in the backfield. Then there's the single wing back with balanced or unbalanced line, the double wing back with balanced or unbalanced line, each designed for certain types of running or passing plays (ask your escort to describe them and watch him struggle . . and he thinks he knows so much about football).

Running or plunging plays are self-explanatory. Passing is simply what it says. A passer drops back, and with the receiver (who has been told in the huddle) down field and in the clear, throws the ball to him and away he gallops (maybe). A lateral pass is one thrown to a receiver to the side of the passer.

More than any other sport, football depends upon the team play. Each man has his assignment on each play, and if he fails the play is apt to fail. Spectacular stars are only made because 10 other stars are performing perfectly.

Here are just a few terms you'll hear, and which you won't have to ask about in exciting moments:
Off-side: A team is declared off-side when any player crosses the line of scrimmage before the ball is snapped by the center. Penalty, five yards.
Clipping: Taking an opponent off his feet from behind. Penalty, 15 yards.

Holding: Deliberate use of the hands to hold an opponent. Penalty by offense, 15 yards; by defense five yards.

Unnecessary Roughness: Kicking, gouging, slugging, or any flagrant roughness to an opponent. Penalty, 15 yards, or half the distance to the goal line at the discreation of the officials.

Interference: Illegal use of hands, butting, shoving, or pushing a prospective pass receiver. Penalty, pass allowed as complete at point of interference.

Field Goal: Place-kicking, or drop-kicking of ball from any point in field so that it goes between the goal posts and over the cross-bar in the opponents end zone. Score, three points.

And when you see that official at the goal line hold both hands above his head, that's a touchdown lady, and six points for our side. We hope you enjoy the game.

We're gonna march, march, march, right down the field.
And Wooster High will never, never yield,
We're gonna cheer, cheer, cheer, with all our might,
Our boys will do their best to win this game tonight,
We're gonna put the Blue and Gold on high,
And then we'll raise our voices to the sky,
We're gonna put old Canton on its back,

Dedication

Another successful year can be placed on the records for MR. WALLACE E. FRANKS, Music Supervisor of the Wooster Schools.

Each year the band and orchestra under Mr. Franks's direction have brought the school high honors with their ratings in district and state contests. As director of the choir, Mr. Franks tirelessly drills the high-school singers for their enjoyable public appearances. For a number of years, Mr. Franks was co-director of the high-school operettas. The '49ers will long remember NAUGHTY MARIETTA, MY MARYLAND, and THE RED MILL.

For his untiring efforts in behalf of the school, The Annual Staff of 1949 is proud to dedicate this Annual to Mr. Wallace E. Franks.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

On the second Monday of each month the Wooster City Board of Education holds its meeting.

As its paramount task for this year, the Board has undertaken the building program. After the bond issue was approved, additions to the four elementary schools and a new school for the north end of town were begun. At Walnut and Beall Avenue, the additions are now complete. Bowman Sreet addition is nearly finished so that full time will be given to the Pittsburgh Avenue School.

A tract of land south of Pittsburgh School has been purchased with the intention of making a playground for the children. Also, two large lots fronting Burbank Road were bought for a front entrance to the Layton School.

The Board is also interested in redecorating the school buildings and has hired a full time painter for this work.

Through much effort of the School Board, the new stadium at Maurer Field is now completed.

Emmett D. Miller ..... President
Dr. Clifford R. Cutright ..... Vice-president
R. W. Miller ..... Clerk-treasurer

Mr. Joseph A. Dorff

One of the hardest tasks of mankind has been easily undertaken by our principal, Mr. Joseph Dorff.

Although Mr. Dorff has been with us only two years, he has proved that a school principal can "lay down the law" and still maintain a friendship with his students.

When the Forty-niners and following classes are graduated they will remember Mr. Dorff's deep interest in the students and his sound advice.

Mr. D. P. Bodenbender

As the superintendent of the Wooster City schools, Mr. Bodenbender keeps a busy schedule.

Even with his busy schedule, he always finds time to show his interest in the high school and its activities, and to learn to know most of its students personally.

This year's students will remember his interesting assembly program of poems recited from memory and applying to the problems of every day life.

FROM THE PAST

We were rummaging through a record shop the other day and found, back in a corner, an old album that really brought back memories. It was a recording of the famous Hays Filibuster of 1969. The one that broke the world's record, remember? Just for fun, we dusted it off and played a few sides. We wish we knew who recorded and announced those records. He certainly did a beautiful job.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Ohio Filibuster has been in progress for quite some time now. Senator Franklin Hays, who has had the floor for the past seven days, has shown no sign of giving up as yet."

Hays: "And as I recall the good old days back in Wooster High School, it seems to me that there never was a greener bunch than the '49ers to enter WHS's pearly gates. The grind began about the first week of September, the day after Labor Day, to be exact. A traditional one-day holiday was the grand old Wayne County Fair, about a week after the return to the grindstone. School was out for the day, and we got free tickets to boot.

"Every year the GAA Scrap Day started the ball rolling in sports. At this time, girls from grades seven to twelve played interclass baseball games and the frosh and sophs had a tug-of-war across the pool in the city park. Having that extra something in sports, our class copped wins in those interclass games every year, seven through eleven. Not to be slighted in muscles, the sophs certainly made a big splash when we pulled them in the pool our freshman year. The first gal of the class of '49 to make her debut in the sports world was Margie Schreiner, our Junior GAA prexy during our freshman year. Our class contributions to "W" girls are well worth noting with Jo Hodgen holding the reins as president our senior year. Certainly not

POLLY BLANKENSHIP

As the 1949 graduating class marches forward for its diplomas in the spring one smiling face will be absent. Polly Blankenship, who died December 28 in the University Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio, from acute monocytic leukemia, will be missed by many of this year's graduating seniors.

Polly was an active participant in F.H.A. and Dittem and Dottem clubs, and worked at the Dine-a-Mite in her spare time. She was enrolled in the commercial course at Wooster High.

Her quiet and friendly ways will be long remembered by all those with whom she associated.

FROM THE PAST

to be overlooked is Patti Cohan, the Senior GAA prexy for the year '48 '49. And furthermore . . ."
Speaker of the Senate: "Will the speaker yield to a question? May I inquire just what girls splashing in water and Jo Hodgen have to do with the bill before the Senate?"
Hays: "GAA is a mere introduction to my chronicle. Well do I remember those traditional Orrville-Wooster football games. There was never a dull moment. Why, when we were freshmen, the Orrville bleachers were so flimsy they collapsed; in our soph year Don Harris saved the day by catching the winning pass that set us on the top; a good excuse for a loss our junior year was the mud through which the players had to swim; we made a big comeback our senior year, though, with a final score of 28-12, in Wooster's favor.

"In our junior year Coleman and Zuercher arrived as sports directors with their famous muscle-building and back-breaking techniques. The Wooster High Tankers, swimming team, was restored also in our junior year. I don't want to leave the football season too far behind, for, in our senior year, co-captains Wes Snoddy and Johnny Coppola crowned 'Nicki' Powell Homecoming Queen for 1948-49.

"To change the scene a bit, I can still see Mr. Franks frantically waving his baton over the heads of the band, orchestra, choir, and glee club. A few members of our class as freshmen were fortunate to be in the last operetta in Wooster High, Naughty Marietta. Highlights throughout the musical year were the traditional Christmas sing, the Kent musical contests, from which Wooster usually returned with several firsts, and the annual band and orchestra concerts in the spring. Among the lists of those who pulled first at solo contests could usually be found the names of Jim and John Williams.

"Another memorable moment in my Wooster High days was the time when my debate Partners Willie McKee, Barbara Ward, and I helped 'bring back the bacon' our senior year by returning to Wooster from Canton McKinley with a monstrous cup. Oh, those speech tournaments, Student Congresses, and the annual NFL Christmas and spring formals! Those certainly were the days.

"The '49ers hailed many a play to a successful climax with such little Katharine Cornells and Lionel Barrymores as Dotty Lou Berry, Don Bell, John Williams, Patti Cohan, and Willie McKee. The stage successes were further boosted by many '49ers behind scenes such as Sally Elder and Phyllis Johnson with their hands deep in grease paint and powder, Elton Boyer fixing burnt out bulbs, Jerry Bradford painting flats, Marilyn Kauffman digging up costumes, and 'Suds' Murray prompting the players.

"Johnson seemed to dominate the journalistic section of our senior year with Phyllis Johnson as editor of the Annual and Jim Johnson plugging away as General editor. Concealed in the corner was the ever-present and faithful copyreader for the General, Mary Lou Wright."
Announcer: "Well, folks, we've go big news for all of you. The Ohio Filibuster has broken the world's filibuster record by continuing non-stop for four months. Soul speaker has been the well-known Franklin Filibuster Hays.

"Repeta Recordings tunes you in again to the 101st session of Congress to hear the final words in a history-making speech."
Hays: "Our class has always been a leader in school activities. Perhaps the reason is that we

STUDENT SENATE

Student Senate is the representative body of the school. Members to the senate are elected by respective home rooms, the senior home rooms each electing three senators. The duty of this group is to discuss and act upon problems presented to them by the students and the faculty.

The senate sold and distributed Student Activity Tickets and took orders for annuals. They also conducted the elections for class officers. To raise money for a school dance, the senate had candy and bake sales.

One of the many functions of the Student Senate is to elect members of the Booster club, who, in turn, plan pep rallies and parades to keep student morale at a high level.

Two school improvements promoted by the senate this year were painting the wastebaskets with the school colors and policing the cafeteria line.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an honorary organization whose members are expected to work within the school to improve standards and scholarship. To it are elected fifteen per cent of each senior class, five per cent in each semester of the senior year.

These students are chosen on a four point basis: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Students in the upper third of the class are eligible. Rank in leadership is determined by the extra-curricular activities in which a student participates. Service and character are judged by a point system of students and faculty.

From the rankings in scholarship, leadership, service, and character a complete ranking is made. Those who rank highest are installed in National Honor Society at a service in the spring.

GENERAL STAFF

Neither wind, rain, nor storm stopped The General from coming out sooner or later—usually later. The staff was really shedding "blood, sweat, and tears" to have The General come out on time. Everything from copies lost on busses to blank Generals (courtesy of the Rittman Press) hampered them. The editions finally started to come out regularly when Collier's agreed to do the printing.

The staff was certainly busy this year. In addition to their back-fence gossiping, corn cracking, and tantrum throwing, they actually wrote the news and features which were presented in The General. Proof of its success lies in the fact that The General received the

RADIO CLUB WHSV

WHSV was organized last fall by Mr. Ward Konkle, who was interested in creating a club through which students could learn and practice the principles of radio broadcasting.

Members of WHSV gave the daily announcements over the PA system. They also gave skits to advertise special high school events and programs. Dickens's "Christmas Carol" was presented during the Christmas season.

On April 25, the Wooster High Student Voice conducted an all-school assembly program. As a feature of the assembly, a one-half-hour mystery play, "The Hitch-Hiker," was presented.

WHSV had a part in state-wide competition this year. They were represented by two members at the Ohio High School Speech League Contest which was held at Ohio State University on April 22.

The members of WHSV feel that they have gained valuable experience this year. Several members of the club have already obtained part-time jobs at the Wooster radio station. In future years, WHSV will certainly become one of the outstanding organizations at Wooster High School.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies."
—Pope

Initiation in the spring of all new members is the only meeting of this non-secret, non-social organization. At this formal initiation all members of Soc and Buskin club receiving the required ten points are admitted to the Thespian Club's membership.

Thespians receiving forty points are recognized as Honor Thespians for outstanding work in dramatics. Special pins are awarded at the spring banquet and dance for all new Honor Thespians.

A second special award is presented by Miss Ruth King, adviser, to those seniors who she believes have done outstanding work as actors and crew men in their four years of high school.

Two professors at the College of Wooster, Dr. Delbert Lean and Professor William Craig, are honorary Thespians of the Wooster Chapter.

SOC AND BUSKIN

At the first meeting new officers were elected and the new adviser, Miss Doris Young, was introduced. Tryouts and the selection of a cast for the fall play, "Our Hears Were Young and Gay", was the next major business of the club.

The meetings this year were centered about discussions of the book Rehearsal by individuals of the club.

Two one-act plays, "All On a Summer's Day" and "Joint Owners In Spain", were given at various town club meetings.

The activities of the club were closed by the production of a spring play.

FTA

The Clifton Layton Club of Future Teachers of America

The Clifton Layton Club of Future Teachers of America was organized in March of 1947. Since then, the club has been growing steadily in size and importance.

This year, we had one noontime meeting and one night session each month. Business was discussed at the noon meetings while regular programs were presented at the monthly night sessions.

Our induction ceremony for new members was held on October 27 with Principal Dorff as the speaker. On December 2, we entertained the Ashland FTA. Professor Stoneburner of the Wooster College Department of Education was the speaker. On January 6, Dr. Southwick, registrar at Wooster College, spoke to us on the subject of college requirements. To celebrate Valentine's Day, we held a Valentine party at the home of Florence Lorenz on February 10.

On March 3, we held our meeting in the kindergarten room of the Beall Avenue School. Miss Leiter, one of our sponsors and teacher of the Beall Avenue kindergarten, gave us some pointers on teaching young children. On April 7, a forum of FTA members discussed practice teaching experiences. Miss Jeffries, the speaker for the evening, told of her work at Wooster High School.

Our last meeting was held on May 5. It was the annual May breakfast when the new officers were installed and the seniors were recognized.

As in the past, FTA again had many service projects. Members served as guides and ushers at the PTA open house, at teachers' meetings, and at the Wayne County Teachers' Institute. Members of FTA served as teachers in the seventh and eighth grade study halls. We also sent several packages of used clothing to a family in Europe.

We think that the FTA has had a successful year and we wish to thank our advisers for their help.

JUNTO

The purpose of Junto Club is to teach parliamentary procedure to its members. During the meetings motions are made and various points are brought up to aid in the study.

The motions are by no means serious. A typical rule passed by Junto, for instance, was one that would have underclassmen walk on the ceilings so that the traffic would be lighter in the halls.

Membership in Junto is composed mainly of presidents of school organizations and NFL members who have achieved the Degree of Distinction. The reason for this is that those with these qualifications are the ones who need parliamentary procedure the most.

Several weeks before Student Congress in the spring, all NFL members who are not Juntonians come to the meetings. Here they attempt to learn the parliamentary procedure which will help them at Student Congress.

SENIOR HI-Y

The Senior Hi-Y of this year has accomplished a few things which have helped both the school and pupils.

At the beginning of the school year the Senior Hi-Y, abiding by an old Hi-Y custom, furnished refreshments at the home football games. They also furnished and distributed attractive programs for the spectators.

At Christmas time the Hi-Y together with the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a school dance.

The Senior Hi-Y, as in the past, paid for the annual pictures of football teams, boys' "W", track, and baseball. In addition to this they bought equipment for the track and baseball squads.

The Senior Hi-Y club owes its success to the able leadership of its adviser, Mr. Adair, and Mr. Diehr of the YMCA.

JUNIOR HI-Y

Junior Hi-Y had regular meetings twice a month on Wednesday nights. Films were shown at some of these meetings while others were used for recreation. At one program, Mr. Kenneth Walters of the Wooster Police Force spoke on the use and care of firing arms.

In order to obtain experience for next year's activities, members of Junior Hi-Y took over the refreshment stand at the last home football game with Orrville. As in previous years, they had charge of concessions at all of the home basketball games.

The Junior Hi-Y donated turkeys for the baskets of food which were given to needy families in Wooster at Thanksgiving. Cooperating with the other Hi-Y clubs, the Junior Hi-Y helped to sponsor the Sam Campbell show on wildlife in March.

Members of Junior Hi-Y had an active year and they are looking forward to being the "master" club of Hi-Y next year.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y

The Sophomore Hi-Y has had a very busy year. Their main project during the football season was selling pep ribbons.

Sophomore Hi-Y had many interesting meetings this year. Talks on wildlife, arms, and safety were presented at several programs. Others consisted of recreational activities. On March 15, eighteen boys of this group attended a hockey game in Cleveland.

This year has been very profitable to all the members of Sophomore Hi-Y and they are looking forward to next year's activities in Hi-Y.

FILMBREAKERS

The Filmbreakers is one of our very important service clubs. Everyday, nearly every period, you can find one of the members in Room 203 showing a moving picture for some class.

Another service which the club performs is showing films for school organizations and for assemblies.

Members also repair films, clean and oil the motion picture projectors, and carry films to and from the Post Office and the Public Library.

FEEDBACKS

The Feedback club is an organization of the boys and girls who operate the school sound equipment.

Feedback activities this year included serving as sound engineers for football and basketball games and operating sound equipment in the auditorium. During each period one of the members was stationed in the public address control room to perform such duties as disc and wire recording, announcement engineering and record playing. The club was able to make many recordings of school activities this year because a wire recorder was purchased by the school.

TRI-HI-Y

SEPTEMBER—Following a tradition, the Tri-Hi-Y opened its program for the year with a Big-Little Sister picnic held at 6:30 in the City Park. The new constitution, over which the officers had been slaving during the summer, was read and approved.

OCTOBER—The Tri-Hi-Y members were the guests of the Hi-Y at their induction ceremony.

NOVEMBER—Since the Tri-Hi-Y attended the Hi-Y induction, our own induction service for new members was not held until November. Dr. Vergilius Ferm of the College of Wooster was the speaker.

The Tri-Hi-Y and the Hi-Y worked together to collect food for Thanksgiving baskets to be given to needy families of Wooster. The baskets were dedicated at an all-school assembly.

DECEMBER—When the Christmas season rolled around, the Tri-Hi-Y held its annual Mother-Daughter Tea. The program was planned by Barbara Haun. Barbara Mitchell read "The Christmas Candle" and Mary Pfister sang two numbers.

Our service projects were decorating of the Christmas tree in the hall and the trees in the auditorium for the Christmas Sing and collecting money for CARE. Twenty-five packages were sent to various countries in Europe

JANUARY—Tri-Hi-Y cooperated with Hi-Y and the churches of the city in sponsoring National Youth Week.

TRI-HI-Y

The Reverend Howard Ellis, artist and lecturer, was the speaker at our regular meeting. Mr. Ellis made his message convincing by his beautiful portrait of Christ.

MARCH—In March the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y concentrated on etiquette and proper clothing for various occasions. A joint "Dress-Up" party was held with the program in charge of Miss Fausnaugh and Miss Chase. The second meeting of the month was a style show with our mothers as guests.

APRIL—The first meeting of the month was called "Talent Night," with Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y combined. This meeting was planned to give any member of these organizations who desired it an opportunity to take part in the program and to share his or her talents with the other members. We hoped to uncover some hidden talents.

MAY—"Does it pay to finish school?" "What about college?" These were the questions which the girls tried to answer at their last regular meeting.

JUNE—Last but not least came the Senior Farewell Tea. The plans were made and carried out by the newly elected officers.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Wooster chapter of Future Homemakers of America held its meetings regularly on the second Tuesday of each month. TheFHA members participated in many activities throughout the school year. They sponsored a dinner for the Northeastern Ohio Principals Association in November. During the Christmas season, the members made stuffed toys and sent them to Greece as a part of the World Christmas Festival. At a meeting in Orrville, Ruth Quillen was elected president of the Wayne and Holmes county chapters of the Eastern Ohio Section of FHA. In addition to these activities, FHA held many enjoyable social events.

During the year, the girls have been working to obtain their Junior and Senior Homemakers Degrees. Several already have them and others are looking forward to receiving them at the annual Recognition Day banquet held the last of May.

The Wooster Club is a member of the National Organization of FHA. This year we had a membership of sixty-four girls who were interested in making better and happier homes in America.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of the FFA is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship in the farm boys of America and her outlying possessions.

Our motto is: Learning to do. Doing to learn.
Earning to live. Living to serve
—William Groseclose

During the past year the Wooster Chapter has participated in a large number of activities on the local, district, and state basis. Locally, we entered a pest hunt and participated in softball and basketball contests with neighboring chapters. On the district and state basis we entered parliamentary procedure contests and demonstrations, and livestock, farmship, and engineering judging teams.

The chapter purchased FFA jackets last fall. They entertained the parents at the annual parent and son banquet April 21.

The chapter plans to send representatives to the National FFA convention next fall.

DITTEM AND DOTTEM

The senior shorthand club met once a month to further the purpose of the club. Last year, when the club was first organized, the girls chose two main objectives: (1) to enrich each student's business knowledge; (2) to strengthen those desirable traits she already possesses and develop desirable traits that may be lacking.

Field trips consisted of visiting a number of business establishments to observe the office personnel, to examine modern office equipment, and to collect special business forms used in local offices.

Desirable personality traits, required skill, and the importance of accuracy were the chief topics at meetings. Mr. A. M. Burrington, Buckeye Aluminum Company; Mr. Donald Noble, Wooster Rubber Company; Mr. Howard Zook, Wooster Brush Company, were guest speakers at meetings during the past year.

From April 18 to May 13, the girls were given an opportunity to apply the principles they had learned in class on a job-training program in downtown offices.

A Christmas party at Margie Schreiner's house on December 15 and a spaghetti dinner on March 15 were two enjoyable social events.

AMANUENSES

This group of junior commercial girls was organized this year with Miss Gwenneth Foss as adviser.

The purpose of the club was to study the traits of an efficient secretary.

One of the projects of the club was to investigate the different types of secretaries and the requirements of each position.

Since the club was organized late in the year, there were only three meetings held. These meetings combined business and social activities and took place at the homes of the members.

The activities of the club will continue next year.

The officers of the Amanuenses are:

ORCHESTRA

The Wooster High School orchestra was part of a new system this year. Students who played in both band and orchestra received one-half credit and were graded every six weeks as in any other subject. However, it was not necessary to play in both band and orchestra.

The annual orchestra concert was given on April 1 under the direction of Mr. Wallace E. Franks. The program included several well-known compositions and a solo by John Williams. Two pieces were performed under the direction of James Williams and Donald Bell, who had been elected student directors at the beginning of the year. A student concert was also given on March 31.

As it had done in previous years, the orchestra furnished music for assemblies, Soc and Buskin presentations, and meeting of the Teachers of Northwestern Ohio. It also entered the District Orchestra Contest held at Kent on April 2.

Fourteen seniors will leave the orchestra upon graduation. These seniors were recognized at the annual picnic sponsored by the Band and Orchestra Mothers' Club.

The orchestra ended its year's activities by playing for Baccalaureate and Commencement services.

BAND

The Wooster High School Band started the year by playing for football games. The marching band presented shows at the five home games and also at two away games with Wadsworth and Canton Central Catholic.

The band also furnished music for the home basketball games under the direction of Tom Watson and Dick McKibben, the band's student directors. A special feature of the last home game with Millersburg was a half-time show given by the majorettes.

On January 29, nine members of the band went to Canal Fulton to participate in the Northeastern Ohio Band Clinic. Marjorie Wright was chosen from a group of twenty-five to play first chair clarinet in the ninety-piece band. The entire band traveled to Kent on April 2 to participate in the Northeastern Ohio Distrit Contest.

On April 25 the band gave its eighteenth annual band concert under the capable direction of Mr. Wallace E. Franks. "Czech Rhapsody" and several novelty numbers and marches were presented at the concert.

The officers which were elected at the beginning of the year were:

CHOIR

This year the choir realized two long-dreamed-of goals. One, each member of the choir had a blue and gold robe. Two, for the first time choir was offered as a regular subject with a place on the daily schedule and earning one-half unit of credit. Every day the fifty-seven members met sixth period in the music room with Mr. Wallace E. Franks, their director, for a session of breathing and singing.

The choir appeared before high school groups at the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies and also at the Sunday services during Youth Week.

Christmas was a busy time, for in addition to the assembly, the choir broadcast over WWST, and appeared in the Christmas Sing.

In April the choir journeyed to Kent to participate in the district choir contest.

The annual choir concert was presented in May.

LIBRARY CLUB

These Little Women were possibly thinking of Careers Ahead when they joined Library club. If you Look in the school library, you will see these girls practically Buried Alive in books and magazines. Miss Hudson admits that she would be Out on a Limb if it were not for the help given by members of the club. Each member contributes at least one hour each week to working in the school library.

Weekly meetings are held during the extended periods at which the members learn about Books for the High School Library and other related subjects.

But not all is drudgery for the girls in Library club. They also join the club for The Fun of It. A social is held each month. Some of the outstanding ones this year were the Christmas party, the birthday party, and the Senior Farewell.

Speaking Frankly, these girls deserve three Cheers for their good work as Heroines of Service in the library, and they have gained some valuable experience.

SOPHOMORE LATIN CLUB

This year the Sophomore Latin club was again under the able supervision of Mrs. Joss. The first meeting was held in October. Officers were elected and the movie "Julius Caesar" was shown.

On December 22, we had a Christmas caroling party and then went to the school for refreshments. Instead of having a gift exchange, we used the money to send a basket of food and toys to a needy family in Wooster.

In the spring, we held a Roman banquet. Roman food was served in a setting which was in keeping with those of Roman times.

We are sure that this organization helped us to understand and to appreciate the Latin language.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR SPANISH CLUB

We in the Spanish Club have had a great variety of meetings this year. We chose the third Thursday of every month as the day for our meetings and we think it is safe to say that everyone enjoyed them.

One of the outstanding social events of the year was the Christmas meeting at which we had a buffet dinner (with food supplied by all of us) followed by a movie and the breaking of the Pinata, an old Mexican custom. Then there was the White Elephant Sale to which we brought some of our excess "junk" for Howie King to auction off. We had all kinds of other interesting meetings including several movies on Mexico. We think all our meetings were both entertaining and educational.

One of our projects this year was selling Christmas cards to make money to buy new books for the second year students. We also collected sales tax stamps for this purpose. All in all, both juniors and seniors had a good time in Spanish club this year.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

This year really marked the beginning of the rise of Wooster High School's speech department after several years of decline. Under the direction of Miss Doris Young, individual events, and Miss Fern Patterson, debate, speech activities prospered.

This year, the debate squad won 107 debates and lost 40. The first debate team composed of Barbara Ward and Jane Wyckoff, affirmative, and Frank Hays and William McKee, negative, won 18 and lost 10 and won 19 and lost 10 respectively. Paul Spangler finished the debate season, taking Jane Wyckoff's place on the affirmative when she became ill. The varsity team won the Canton McKinley debate contest and came home victorious with the coveted trophy.

At the NFL district contest at Canton McKinley, several speakers squalified for the state finals. Barbara Ward qualified in oratory, James Jolliff in humorous, Frank Hays in extemp, and Pat Ryan in original oratory. The varsity debate squad triumphantly won the debate and qualified for the state. Again the debaters brought home a trophy.

At the state contest, only the debate team placed. By reaching the semi-finals, the team took third place in the state.

Many speakers took part in the Annual Prince of Peace contests. Janet Paton reached the district.

The NFL membership has increased rapidly this year. Once more this chapter is becoming one of the leading NFL chapters. Barbara Ward is one of the three point leaders in the state.

Many of the members went to the eleventh annual Student Congress held at Ravenna, Ohio, April 14-16. A very profitable time was had by all those who attended.

Over 120 Junior High students were coached in the six speech fields by active NFL members. The largest Junior High tournament to date was held this year.

Forensic students took time off to hold the Annual Christmas Formal. Plans are now in progress for the annual spring banquet and dance as the book goes to press.

In all, this year's National Forensic League had a very successful year.

rating of second in the Columbia Scholastic Press contest. Much of the credit goes to the hard-headed editor-in-chief whose favorite pastime was ramming his head through the windows in 167.

Experience in salesmanship was attained by some of the members of the staff when they lent their exceptional talents to peddling hot dogs, pop corn, ice cream, and cokes at the Class B county basketball tournaments. Although everyone tried his best to eat up the profits, there was a considerable sum left to be divided among the participating organizations. The General used its money for equipment.

The staff hopes that next year's staff will have as much fun as they did, and also that they will benefit from the experiences which they will meet.

JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

This year marked the beginning of concentrated Junior Red Cross work in Wooster High School. By the establishment of the Junior Red Cross Council direct contact with individual homerooms was made possible.

Approximately seventy-five Junior Red Cross gift boxes were filled by high school students. The art department contributed many beautiful and useful articles for the service program. Several other organizations participated in the work of the Council.

It is hoped that in the future Junior Red Cross will find a really important place in the high school activities.

WESTWARD HO, FORTY-NINERS

A century ago our forefathers set out on unfamiliar trails and made the perilous journey across our unexplored continent. Some were searching for gold, others for new homes, and still others merely for adventure.

After June of this year we Forty-niners will be setting forth on unfamiliar trails to make the journey into the unexplored future. What will be our fate? Will we find gold or adventure?

Let's take a trip across the country in say about 1960, to see where we may discover these modern Forty-niners. Hurry, we mustn't be late! The Square Wheel Limited always leaves promptly now that Tom Igoe is engineer.

Leaving Mary Jane Loreaux in Boston correcting errors in the encyclopedia Brittanica, we head southward to Cape Cod, where we find Nevin Wintersteen in a small row boat fishing for the halibut. Oh, oh, it looks as if he has accidentally snagged Joe Alderman, who was strolling along in the midst of the Gulf Stream. (We heard from Bill Bushnell, radio commentator on station M-O-L-D in Fungus, Nebraska, that Joe is the only man in the world who can walk on the ocean bottom with his head in the clouds.)

In New York we have an hour's wait before departure which will give us time to do some sight-seeing. In New York's east-side district, we notice a figure bent intently over the sidewalk. Is he observing small insects about their daily tasks? No, it is only Don Detrow drawing hop-scotch blocks for the neighborhood kids. A few blocks down the streets is a huge sign: "Jim Johnson's Luminous Jackets," it reads. "Get your Johnson's Glo-Coat today."

Since the hour is nearly up, we grab a cab and return to Grand Central Station, where our locomotive is waiting.

Now enroute to Niagara Falls, our next stop, we pick up a copy of Grouver's Ghastly Gazette (a book of Gloom, Gore, and Ghouls galore) for a little bit of grave reading. Here's a review of the new movie "Death at Daybreak or Comes the Dawn You'll Be Gone," starring John Williams, the valiant violinist.

We notice that Niagara is still falling. On our right is a small stand with a sign reading "Martin's Better Barrels." Pat has dedicated her life to those who go over the falls in barrels.

Engineer Igoe has headed southward to Pennsylvania. Feeling slightly hungry, we stop in Hershey to beg a candy bar from Colin Helm. He's a candy mechanic, tightening nuts in the almond bars. As we cross the street, we encounter our artist friend, Sylvia Spencer, painting a line down the middle of the highway in Sherwin-Williams new pastel shades.

All aboard for the Blue Ridge Mountains! In a quiet little station in "them thar hills," where we stop for water, are Buck Gamertsfelder and Vic Jones, the mighty hunters. They are down for a vacation from trapping pink elephants in the azure ridges.

At dusk we pull into Loose Noose, Kentucky, home of Doyle Trunk, the happy hangman. He has just graduated from Slip Knot University and is really "hanging in there."

We head southward again. Conductor Marshall Fouch distributes Sen-Sen as we pass through the Great Smoky Mountains.

The Square Wheel Limited knows no limits. Here we are in that land of effervescent sunshine—Florida. There beside the blue, blue ocean, is the thatched hut of Don Ebert, local public-beach comber. From the depths of the Everglades echoes the haunting strain of a familiar tune. The voice belongs to our old classmate, George Brenneman, champion alligator wrestler. George is humming his favorite melody, "Slime on My Hands."

Daybreak finds us crossing the border into Louisiana. We are just in time to catch a glimpse of 'Corky" Kardos as he and his 15,000 Boy Scouts paddle over the horizon in their fleet of homemade dugouts, bound for Lower Slobovia.

The suthern sun bein' too much for us all, we turn "nawthwad again." In the Ozarks, we

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club got off to a rousing start last fall before school began. Four members and Mr. Konkle, the adviser, were present at this meeting.

We finally got together and planned the first pep rally. During the course of the football season the Booster Club sponsored seven rallies: three indoor, three pep parades, and one parade and bonfire. The club met on the average of three times per week during the football season.

As a highlight of the season the club sponsored the annual Homecoming Dance after the Orrville game

During the basketball season several meetings were held and one pep rally staged. To raise money, the club sold pins and license plate emblems.

During the year, the cheering at the games improved and the club is looking forward to even greater student support next year.

MAJORETTES

The 1948 majorettes are the "whipped-cream topping" of the Wooster High band. A blow of a whistle and a beat of a drum sent them twirling down the field announcing the Gold and Blue General marching band.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The gals behind the boys behind the school is a fitting description of the peppy varsity cheerleaders. The leaders cheered the Generals on to many victories in the '48-'49 season.

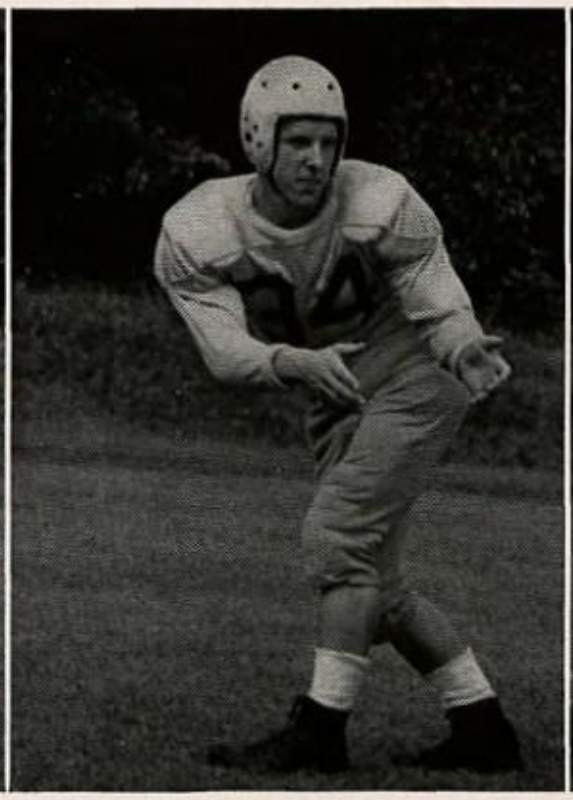
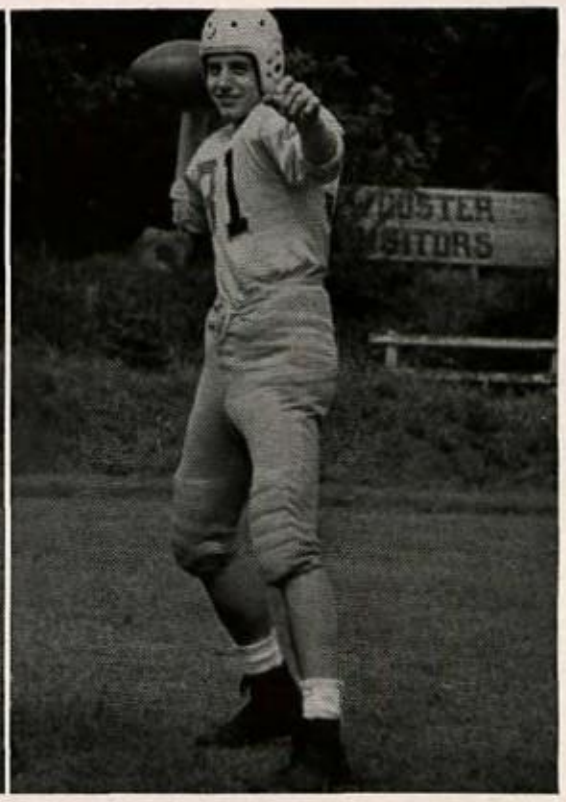
Fast and hard-driving are the words to describe our co-captain, fullback, JOHNNY COPPOLA. He won his first letter this year and was a fine player on offense or defense.

Johnny Coppola



WES SNODDY was one of the co-captains this year. He was high scorer for the Generals and could really put on the pressure when it was needed. Wes won an All-Ohio berth on the A. P. All-Ohio squad at his half-back position.

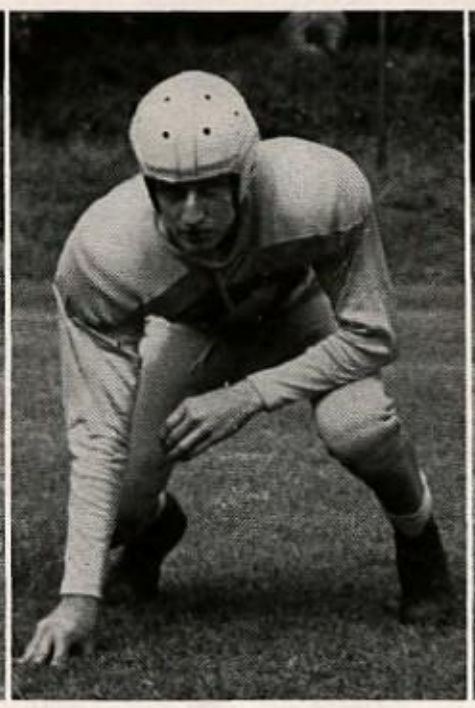
Wes Snoddy



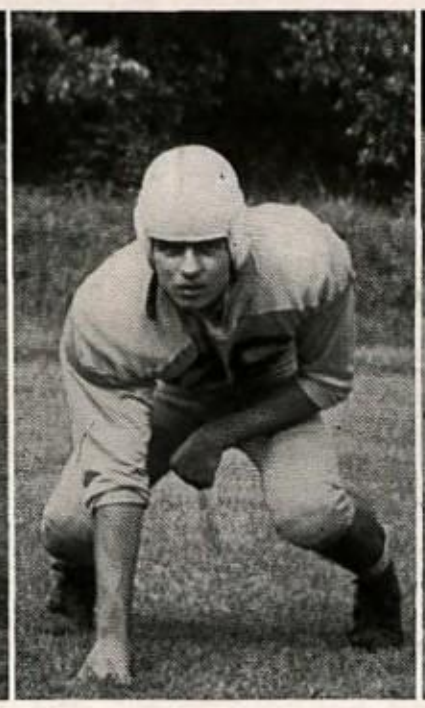
"RANGY" DON GAMERTSFELDER did a fine job calling plays from the quarterback position and did an equally fine job punting and heaving the pigskin to the "gluefingers" ends.

Don "Buck" Gamertsfelder

JIM, "the Sponge," REYNOLDS played his finest football during the '48 season. Jim was a vicious tackle on defense, and a good man to have on the receiving end of a pass while the Generals were on offense.

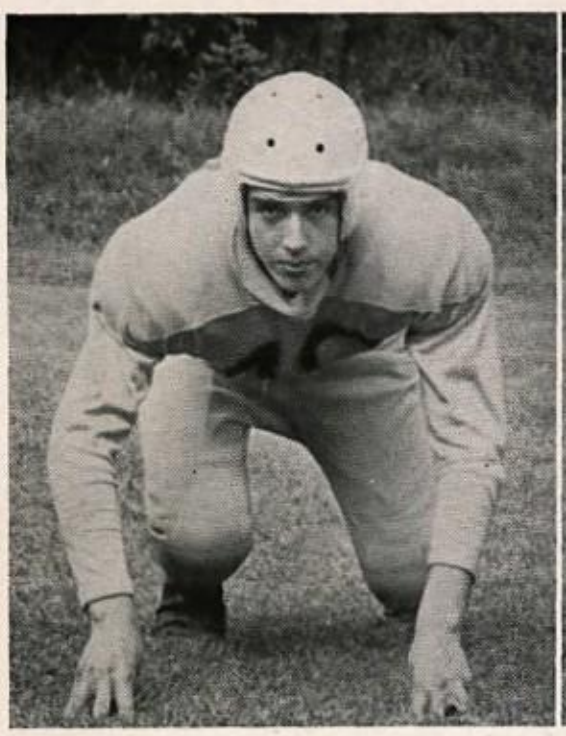


You've heard a lot about those hard-hitting linebackers. Well, JAMIE WEAVER really dominated the secondary for the Generals. He also doubled at tackle on offense where his performance was equally as great.

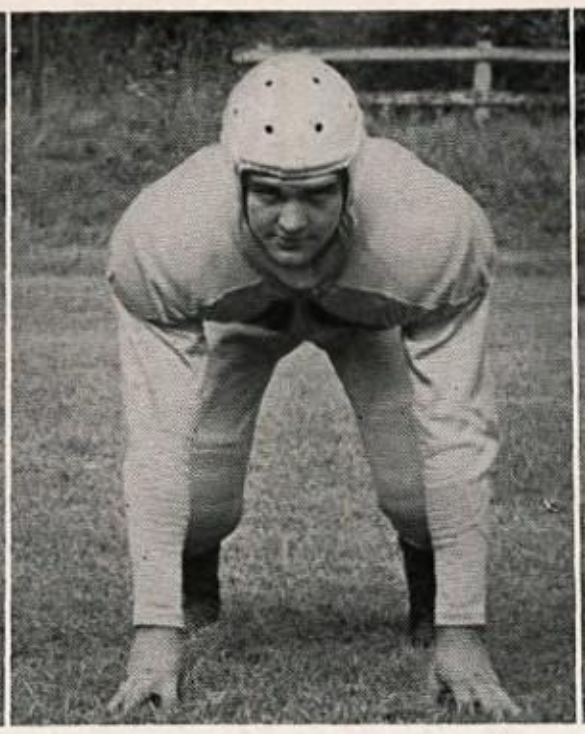


BOB ACKERMAN won his second letter at right end this season. Bob played equally as well on offense as on defense. In any man's language he's a tough customer and a really fine end.

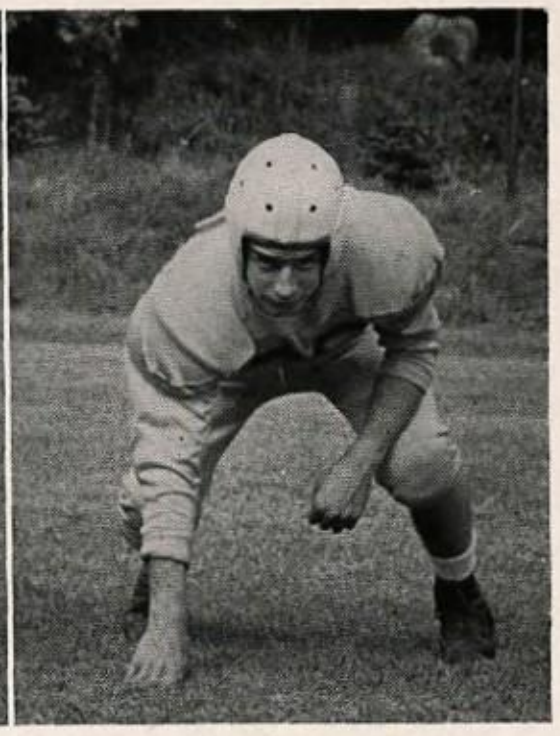
ROGER DERR played a fine game of ball both on offense and on defense. He received his final letter in football this year.



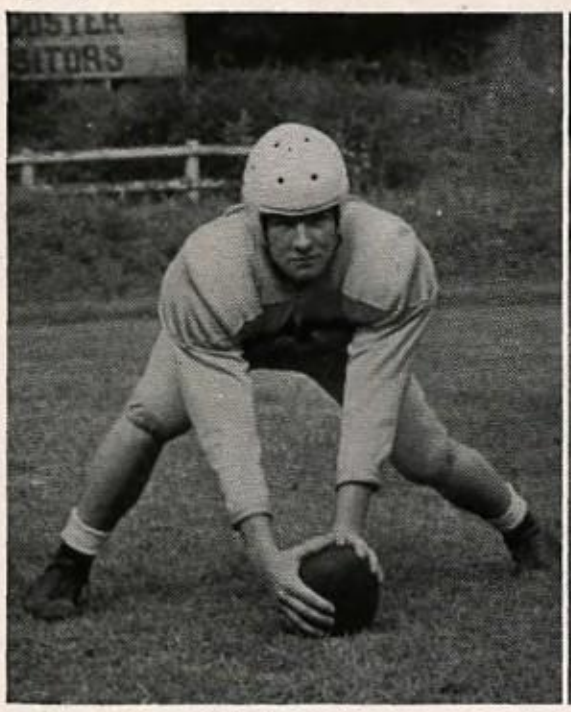
The middle of the line would not have been the same without DAVE SOMERVILLE plugging away for all he was worth. Many an opponent realized that Dave was really a game contender when it came to hitting low and hard. One of Dave's most outstanding characteristics was his clean program of living which aided greatly his nomination as the most valuable player of the season.



BOB LICHTEBERGER played tackle and did all of the kicking off for the Generals this season. Bob's only football letter was won this season.

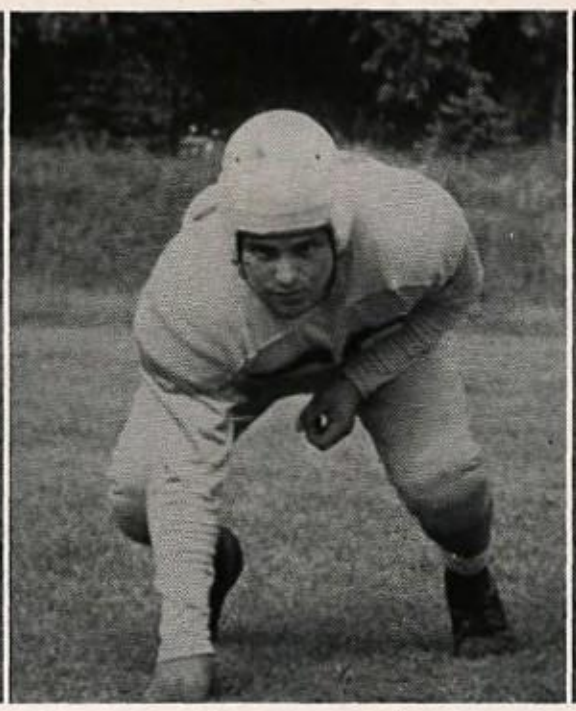


DAVE MUCKLEY was the outstanding downfield blocker of '48. He won his first football letter this season and also won I. N. S. All-Ohio honorable mention, a fact which proves his worth.

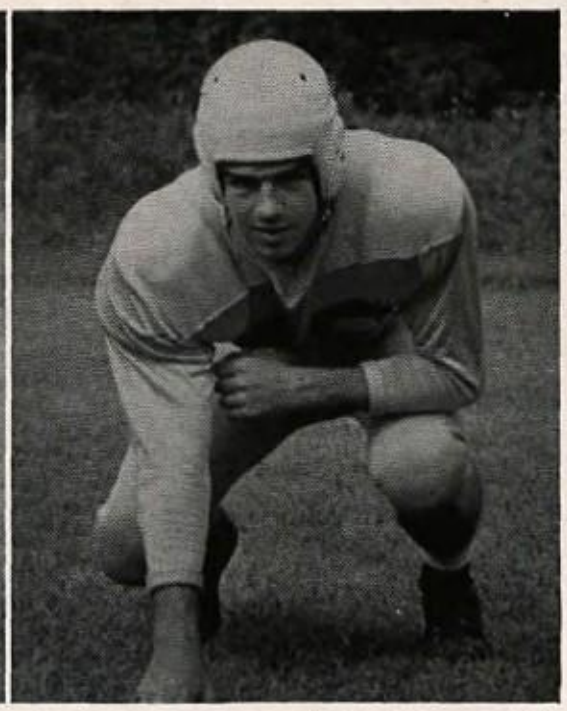


VIC JONES kicked extra points and played center for the Generals. This season Vic earned his first football letter.

Vic Jones



SAMMY GASBARRE, better known as "ball hawk" Gasbarre, won his first football letter this season. Sam accomplished a feat which few linemen do and of which all linemen dream. In the game with Mansfield Madison, he recovered four of the opponents' fumbles, one of which was good for a touchdown.



BILL CARLTON kicked most of the extra points this year and earned himself his first football letter. He was also a very fine end upon whom the coaches could always depend.

COLONELS

"Dynamite comes in small packages" goes the old saying. This is especially true of the fellows on the Junior High squad.

Although they were small and were outweighed by almost thirty pounds per man at times, they kept right on handing it out as well as taking quite a bit.

If such spirit is kept and the number of boys with that spirit increased, the Generals of the future will be a threat in any man's football.

FOOTBALL

A new era of sports has come to Wooster High School. Only a few years ago the Generals were considered good material for the "All-Ohio Scrap Pile." Now, Wooster fans can expect to see a really good game of football when they follow the Generals.

A lot of people wonder what brought about this reformation. Well, the credit goes to the new coaching staff and sport-minded administration. Head coach Coleman and his assistant coaches, Dodez, Zuercher, Halter, and Johnson, have done a remarkable job of making the Wooster High football squad a clean, fast, hard-hitting, first-rate team.

Although the '48 gridders won only six of their ten games, the success of the season goes far beyond percentage of games won and lost. A few changes in fate here and there, might have destined the Generals to have an undefeated season. Only thirteen points account for the four losses the Generals suffered this year, and all of their opponents combined scored only 115 points on them compared with 284 for the Generals.

At the opening game of the season the General took command of the field to give Akron Hower a 66-0 trouncing.

The next two games, against Canton South and Dover, were each lost by one point. Both games gave the spectators more than their money's worth. The scores were 6-7 and 19-20 respectively.

Wooster again broke into the winning column against Akron Buchtel with a score of 26-6 and repeated the same feat on the next Tuesday evening against their traditional rival, Ashland, with a score of 34-6.

Wooster took its two final defeats from Wadsworth, 25 to 18, and Mt. Vernon 23-27, where scat-back Dick Shuff paced the Hornets' attack making all four Td's.

Mansfield Madison, Orrville, and Canton Central Catholic all fell to the Generals' mighty offense. Mansfield Madison took a 27-6 trouncing in a river of mud; Orrville's sixteen-game winning streak was slashed by a score of 38-12; Canton Central Catholic swam to a 27-6 defeat in the "Mud" Bowl at Fawcett Stadium at Canton.

Although the '48 season was very good, Coach Coleman expects to have an even better team next fall. If the spirit and co-operativeness of the squad increases from 1948 to 1949 as it did from 1947 to 1948 there is no doubt that the Forty-niners will have a real gold mine as far as football is concerned.

As per usual, the Wooster High Reserves made a very impressive record in 1948. Out of seven games the Reserves managed to take home six victories which is, indeed, a very good percentage.

Most of the reserve team came from the ninth and tenth grades, although some juniors were regulars.

Practive with the varsity squad at all times is perhaps one of the big reasons for the Reserves' success this year.

BASKETBALL

"Alpha and omega", the beginning and the ending, may well be the terms with which to describe Wooster High's 1948-1949 basketball season. The season was inaugurated with a promising 41-31 victory over the Red Birds of Loudonvile, and likewise in Class A tournament play at the Akron Goodyear Gym, the team played inspired basketball to win their first tourney game from Ravenna 50-47. A strong Akron Garfield quintet, which advanced to regional play and was eliminated only by a team which in turn advanced to the state tournament, ended our tourney play in spite of our 44 points. Thus the season began and ended with a bang, and we don't mean the timer's gun.

Before many games were played the outlook for a successful season was very dim. A disciplinary shake-up affecting three seniors and six sophomores required an almost complete reorganization of the varsity and reserve squads. However, near the end of the season a "new team" began to give keen competition to some of the better Class A schools as the scores will indicate.

Our coaches combine a thorough knowledge of the game with the ability to command the respect and admiration of the team members. There is but one regret among the players and this is that in spite of their untiring efforts we were unable to present them with more victories.

COLONELS

This year the Wooster Junior High Colonels basketball team finished their 1948-49 season with a record of thirteen wins and one loss completing their regular season.

Their only loss came in the last quarter in the Barberton tournaments to the Akron Jennings, 30-27.

The undefeated season of eleven straight wins was the second time in the past three seasons that Coach Al Johnson's boys have been undefeated. The Colonels scored a total of 470 points during the season, an average of 33.6 points per game.

Dick Schreiner took the honors for the season with a total of 176 points. Bill Schreiber came in second with 96 points.

GENERAL TANKERS

This year's edition of Coach Paul Dodez's tankers squad won two out of three meets in high school competition and lost two to the College of Wooster freshmen. They edged Akron South 38-33 and Akron St. Vincent Irish 36-30.

Losses were suffered to powerful Canton McKinley Bulldogs 53-22 and College Frosh 46-20 and 42-23. All losses were in opponents' pools.

With many underclassmen on the varsity and reserve Tanker squad, teams in the following years promise to make swimming a major sport in Wooster High School.

The only seniors on the team this year were Bill Jones, Vic Jones, Jim Williams, and Richard Leighty.

TRACK

The Wooster High track squad opened the 1949 season against Ashland, April 14. The track squad was made up of mostly underclassmen and Coach Roy Black is looking forward to better track squads in the future.

After losing the initial meet to Ashland, the thinclads won from Millersburg and then lost three straight to Willoughby, Ashland, and Mt. Vernon.

On April 30 a part of the squad competed in the nationally famous Ohio Wesleyan relays at Delaware where Jim Weaver captured a third in the pole vault and Ben Massaro a sixth in the 100-yard dash. Coach Coleman, former track Coach at New London and Oak Harbor, was the assistant coach. James Yarnell and Dave Williams served as managers.

Only one record was broken during the season. Jim Weaver set a new local pole vault record with a leap of 12 feet 6 inches in the Willoughby meet.

BASEBALL

With four lettermen returning, the Wooster High Generals start their fourth season under the helm of Coach Paul Dodez. Coach Dodez's four returning lettermen are Don Gamertsfelder at catch, Keith Shearer pitcher, Wes Snoddy at second, and Les Johnson in the outfield. Johnson is the only underclassman in the group. Coach Dodez had great expectations as all the boys out for baseball have had considerable experience from playing in the summer leagues.

The Generals opened the season in a successful way by downing their rivals Ashland 5-1. Shearer pitched a neat five hitter and his mates helped him along by contributing nine hits. Then came a win over Medina. This, however, was followed by three straight defeats at the hands of Canton Timken, Willoughby, and Wadsworth.

The Generals started tournament play by downing Medina for the second time 12-3.

The final game of the tournament was against Cuyahoga Falls. The Generals lost by a score of 7-6.

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club was chartered in 1941 by the Wooster American Legion in order that boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen might be given experience in the safe and correct use of the handling of rifles.

The club holds its meetings every Thursday evening in the old gym where the members shoot an average of ten rounds of ammunition a night. All the materials such as rifles and ammunition are generously furnished by the American Legion.

The Rifle Club is a member of the National Rifle Association, which has the following classes or ranks which may be attained: pro-marksmanship, marksmanship, marksmanship first class, sharpshooter, expert, and distinguished rifleman. A diploma is granted for each step or rank attained.

The training has proved to be very valuable to many former members of the Rifle Club who are now or have been in the service.

The Rifle Club is instructed by A. D. Sigler as in previous years. His assistants are Ray McConahay, Paul McDavitt, and John Mong.

As president of the sports board, Patti Cohan carried out her duties as general manager of all GAA activities. The board consists of four elected members who compose the executive board and ten appointed managers. These combined form the governing body of the GAA.

The four officers of the executive board are the President, the Vice-President who is in charge of points, the Secretary-treasurer who collects dues in the fall and creates an interest in GAA.

SENIOR GAA MEMBERS

These girls remember a fall of tiring soccer games, a winter of thrilling basketball, and a spring of hot baseball games.

The GAA girls elected the executive board of the GAA with Patti Cohan presiding. Under her leadership the girls' intramural program was a great success.

From this group managers were appointed by the officers of the GAA. These managers scheduled games, took care of equipment, marked attendance, and helped choose all-star teams.

GIRLS' "W"

The association of "W" girls is made up of girls who have earned sufficient points to make their "W". In recent years the number of points needed was six hundred, but this year and in future years the amount needed is eight hundred.

Again this year, the "W" girls have cheerfully taken tickets at the basketball games. Sue Stewart was in charge of getting the girls to take tickets at all entrances.

In March the biggest event of the "W" Girls was held. This was the annual all-star basketball game after which a dance was held.

Also, following the game the initiation of new "W" Girls was held. Painted, oddly clothed, and with flour in their hair, the new girls were put through a strict ritual to obtain their "W"s. A "W" is a goal which every girl in sports wishes to obtain.

LEADERS CLUB

Leaders Club consists of sophomores, juniors, and seniors chosen to assist Miss Keyser and Miss Syrios as instructors of the large gym classes. These girls must possess certain qualifications. Several of these are their co-operation with teachers and students, leadship ability, and an average scholastic rating.

In addition to helping teach classes these leaders also referee intramural basketball games and are responsible for equipment.

"W" points are awarded to these girls for their work in classes and other extra activities.

SENIOR G. A. A. ALL-STAR SOCCER

Early fall and the beginning of school bring that feminine approach to football into the spotlight. Soccer started on September 29 with a large turn out of fifty-five senior G.A.A. girls under the management of Esther Grady. Calling signals for class games were the class captains, Marge Wright, sophomore, Doris Hartman, junior, and Norma Newstetter, senior.

The juniors emerged from the class game series as the champions.

At the close of the class series Connie Iannarelli and Pat Weir were chosen all-star captains. They chose their own teams, members of which are pictured below.

The teams were evenly matched and each was determined to win. Joan Smith scored a goal first for Army. This challenge was returned by Ann Albright of Navy. The final score was tied at 2-2.

SENIOR G. A. A. ALL-STAR HOCKEY

Senior all-star hockey was by far the most trying yet amusing game of the year. The information below will prove this statement.

The manager was "twins", Carolyn and Marilyn Smedley.

The elected class captains were Lydia Gilyard, senior, Eleanor Allison, junior, and Sally Comin, sophomore. The sophomore and seniors were pledged to change the "luck" of the juniors.

The juniors supported their winning reputation and were again class champions.

From the winning class teams Norma Newstetter and Nan Ebdy were chosen all-star captains of Army and Navy.

The whistle blew and the putt flew. The teams wore the grass thin in centerfield but neither team was able to score.

ALL-STAR BOWLING

Strikes were the aim of the thirty-two girls who signed up for bowling on November 1. Practices were held every Monday and Friday.

Glorene Walmer's team championed over Patty Arnette's team by ninety-five pins.

Martha Whitmore was the star bowler with 155 for her first game and 129 for her second game.

Janice Gartshore was all-star bowling manager.

SENIOR GAA BASKETBALL

On March 11 the annual Yale-Harvard game drew the curtain on a full basketball season, managed by Sue Stewart. Yale, led by Joan Smith, racked points till the last whistle blew and victory was theirs by a win of 13-8 over Harvard, captained by Carolyn Smedley.

Basketball had a total turn out of eighty-three. These girls formed class teams from which the all-star teams were chosen.

The intermission for the game was a very unusual one. The modern dance program of "Peter and the Wolf" was a great success under the supervision of Katie Cohan and Mildred Loehlin.

"Oh, my aching back" was the cry of the girl tumblers after their exhibition of double forward rolls and somersault dives as another feature on the intermission program.

ALL-STAR SWIMMING

The girl tankers pictured here represent the champions of the 1949 all-star swimming teams. The girls had four practices preceding the five class meets. The seventh, eighth, and ninth grades won three meets, while the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth won one.

The annual all-star meet was held April 7. Yale, captained by Nancy Orahood, won over Harvard, led by Esther Grady. The final score was 72-76.

The teams competed in the 20-yard side overarm, crawl, breast, and tandem strokes, and various relays.

The intermission was a preview of the aquacade to be held May 5. The aquacade will feature rhythmic swimming portraying a waltz, sailors, and pirates.

Miss Keyser and Miss Syrios deserve to be commended for their time and effort given in planning and carrying out a successful sports program for this year.

JUNIOR G. A. A. SPORTS BOARD

The girls, pictured above, comprise the governing body of the junior division of the Girls' Athletic Association. Working with their advisers, Mrs. Jolie and Miss Anna Syrios, they planned the Scrap Day held at the beginning of the year and also a spring get-together. The board is made up of the sports managers, officers, and class representatives.

The officers and representatives are elected by the members of the organization, and the managers are chosen by the board, with the assistance of their advisers. They are picked for interest, skill, and leadership in that particular sport. The board is as follows:

Mary Lou Ackerman	President
Donna Johnson	Vice-president
Connie Arnold	Secretary-treasurer
Sally Wells, Bonnie Derr	Social chairmen
Ann Anderson	Publicity chairman
Betty Brown	Soccer manager
Lois Grim	Bowling manager
Eleanor Reeder	Recreational swimming
Donna Vickers	Pingpong manager
Mary Ann Hudson	Basketball manager
Amelia Quinby	Intramural swimming
Elaine Stewart	Volleyball manager
Judy Bechtel	Baseball manager

JUNIOR GAA

Junior Girls Athletic Association had one of the largest membership totals this year. The first meeting of the year was held to collect dues and to introduce the year's program to the members. In September, the Scrap Day was held. An exciting baseball game, almost won by the seventh graders, was the main event. But the eighth graders made a final stab and overpowered the younger girls. A novel initiation was held and the seventh graders counted windows, doors, and steps for a day.

At Christmas time, the girls sold greeting cards.

The spring picnic was held and the girls received their pins. Points are given for attending two-thirds of the practices, for making All-Star, for being captains, managers, scorers, and referees. A pin is given to those who have a total of six hundred points or more.

JUNIOR G.A.A. ALL-STAR SOCCER

With a kick and a run and a boot and a scramble, the All-Star Army and Navy soccer teams battled their way through a tough game. In the brisk fall air, the girls captained by Judy Bechtel, Navy, triumphed over Army, led by Betty Smith, to the tune of 4-0. Winning goals were kicked by Donna Johnson and Nancy Orahood.

Navy's team consisted of Betty Brown, Donna Johnson, Lucy Lorenz, Barbara Bartholomew, Nancy Orahood, Eleanor Reeder, Amelia Quinby, Ann Anderson, Katie Fritz, Barbara Bartchy, Joan Metzer, and manager Elaine Stewart.

Army's team members were Faye Butterbuagh, Phyllis Whithead, Mary Ann Hudson, Sue Isch, Marlene Daugherty, Nancy Allison, Betty Smith, Carol Sloan, Mary Lou Ackerman, Floretta Richwine, Marlene Petty, Harriet Reich, and manager Connie Arnold.

All the girls attending the banquet at Keeney's expressed their thanks to Betty Brown, Junior G.A.A. manager, and also to Mrs. Joli, girls' physical education leader.

JUNIOR GAA BASKETBALL

When GAA cagers
Come rushing down the floor,
They toss in those baskets
And pile up that score.

The most important event in the Junior GAA, the all-star basketball game, was played March 16, in the new gym. This was the climax of the basketball season for Junior High girls. Ably managed by Mary Ann Hudson, eight teams fought six battles each. Team eight, a freshman team captained by Katherine Tinstman, proved the victor, winning all of their games. Harvard, captained by Elizabeth Funk, consisted of Donna Johnson, Connie Arnold, Alicia Crow, Joan Metzger, Betty Brown, forwards; Barbara Bartholomew, Elaine Stewart, Pam Beeler, guards; water girl, Sally Wells. Yale, led by Katie Tintsman, had Carol Sloan, Jo Smith, Betty Poulson, Donna Kay Vickers as forwards; Nancy Orahood, Freddie Richwine, Mary Ann Hudson, and Mary Lou Ackerman as guards; water girl, Betty Smith.

Yale triumphed 22-8, but both teams were in there fighting all the time. The banquet was held at Keeney's after the game.

Row 1—Donna Kay Vickers, Carol Sloan, Betty Smith, Dorothy Klimek, Betty Brown

JUNIOR G.A.A. ALL-STAR BOWLING

Almost two dozen girls turned out for bowling in the junior GAA division. Under the management of Lois Grim, the girls bowled two nights a week. When the pins stopped falling, Carol Sloan and Katie Fritz totaled up the highest scores to become all-star captains of Vassar and Smith respectively.

On Vassar were Donna Kay Vickers, Lois Grim, Jackie Carpenter, Martha Murphy, and Roberta Ackerman.

Smith team was composed of Donna Johnson, Betty Smith, Betty Brown, Dorothy Klimek, and Joan Shank.

When the cloud of dust settled, Vassar was proclaimed the winner of the 1948-49 bowling season.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Toward the last of Pigskin season, the football boys cast their votes for the Homecoming Queen who was to reign over the annual Orrville-Wooster game. When the votes had been counted and tabbed, Nicki Powell had been chosen to don the crown. As her escorts, Margie Schreiner and Donna Heffelfinger were chosen as senior attendants. Nicki's junior attendants were Doris Hartman and Connie Steiner. After the game, which we won 38-12, the Booster Club sponsored a homecoming dance. The dance was opened by the cutting of a large decorated cake by Queen Nicki for the football boys.

1948 PROM QUEEN AND ATTENDANTS

Frannie Schaan, elected from four girls of last year's class, reigned as the Junior-Senior Prom Queen, with Doris Monroe, Lucille Crow, and Laverne Bible as her senior attendants. The '49 girls who were chosen for junior attendants were Patti Cohan, Roberta Hunter, and Margie Schreiner.

WESTWARD HO, FORTY-NINERS

hear rumors that the great researcher, Howard King, is secluded in a lonely laboratory perfecting his latest invention—tireless tires. They just keep rolling along.

Chugging through Profile, Illinois, we notice a sign in front of a small house. It is the shingle of the eminent nose surgeon, John Coppola. This reminds us to turn on the radio (we nose it's time for the news). We are just in time to hear that Sara (ace sleuth) McQuigg (pronounced Make-Wigg) is still hunting for Jack Benny's toupee on NBC.

We decided to stop off in Chicago for the day as Bill Burson's Flea Circus is playing a one-night stand. Among the attractions (beside the fleas, that is) are Neil Culbertson, flea trainer, and Bobby Lautenschlager behind the concessions counter selling Kick-a-Poo Joy Juice. (This is a special brand imported from the Minnie Chuckle Chuckle reservation.) One of the many special features is Don Curran's "Cruise to Mars." Unfortunately the Curran Cruiser had taken off before we arrived and was last seen touring orbit No. S.

"Westward Ho!" said the old '49ers and "Westward Ho!" say we. We proceed to Eyebrow Bend, Missouri. As we feel in the mood for some chewing gum and a newspaper, we step into the depot only to see Nancy Barton behind one of the counters. She is selling eye-lash curlers for lovely, alluring lids. As we are conversing, the Square Wheel Limited signals for departure, and quick as a wink, we are on our way.

In the newspaper the name Barbara Ward catches our now glamorized (thanks to Nancy) eye. The report states that Miss Ward will speak tomorrow night in Omaha, Nebraska, on behalf of the Society for Securing Shoes for Centipedes.

On the next page we spy a notice: "Get Berry's Giggle Gas—A Snicker in Every Sniff."

The back page holds a picture of Mary Lou Wright, who has just been cited for being the outstanding maker of straight jackets for knit-wits.

We arrive at Pike's Peak (without busting) and decide to take the trip to the top. Marilyn Kaufman, secretary of the Amalgamated Elevator Girls, greets us and gives us the pamphlet "Why and at What Pike was Peeking."

No trip would be complete without a visit to Yellowstone. There among the geysers and bubbling hot springs, dwells Frank Hays, who spends his leisure hours searching for red pebbles along the banks of the Yellowstone River. Frank is well up on the local news and informs us that Don Bell and Dick McKibben have been taken into custody for shooting moose out of season.

We say good-by to Engineer Igoe at Gloomy Galch, Nevada, on the edge of the desert. Since we cannot continue our journey 'til morning, we go to the only available hotel in town, McKee's Magnificent Manor, more familiarly known as Willy's Wayside Woadhouse — Your Wast Chance!

California, Here We Come! To make our journey more picturesque we cross the desert by burro. After three o'clock we hear a fluttering of wings overhead. Flying above us is a weary carrier pigeon trailing a banner which reads 'Boyd's-eye Frozen Foods"—This must be another of Cookie's publicity stunts.

After our difficult trek across the desert, we are glad to see civilization once more. Never too tired for entertainment, we decide to attend the grand opening of Jack Clampitt's Cactus Club. The stars featured are Bob Ackerman and his Futuramic Five: Sopranos Schreiner, Hunter, Hamlin, and Darr, with Pete Hayden carrying the bass. Camilla Yund checks our hats. She is employed here because checking black stetsons at the Brown Derby became too boring.

The next day we bid farewell to Phyllis (Ish) Johnson and Patti Cohan, who are leaving for the exotic land of Tibet to slide down the other side of Mt. Everest. And so, as their sun pulls away from the shore and their boat sinks slowly into the west, we bid adieu to our modern Forty-niners.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '49

A parchment was found plugging up a crack in the ceiling of good ole WHS, and when further examined we found that it was the last will and testament of the great class of 1949. It read as folows:

We the senior class of Wooster High School Forty-niners, being of sound mind and student body, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

Section I

The following people leave their most valuable possessions.

Bob Lichteberger is willing the school back to Mr. Dorff.

Nancy Barton is willing her eyes to Barbara Haun's raised eyebrow.

Ethel Cumberland, Pat Gault, Pat Shafer, Mary Bonadio, Pat Martin, Lora Stauffer will thoughts of their engagement rings to the anxious juniors.

Don Ebert is leaving his old discarded dead brainstorms to "Digger" O'Dell.

Bob Collian leaves his height to Jim Andress.

Norma Wagner and Barb Tice leave their walks to Cliff Elliott and Nan Ebdy.

Tom Watson bequeaths his German class jokes to the Fruhstuck Five.

Marilyn and Carolyn Smedley leave their dual control to Mary Pfister and Peggy Anfang.

Herb Strauss is leaving his thoughts with Rita Butdorf.

Section II

These people leave the same.

Joe Alderman leaves his slenderizing pills to Donna Erbland.

Sue Stewart bequeaths a copy of the Saturday Evening Post to Joan Smith so she can hitch her horse to it.

Collin Helm wills his study hall antics to all the teachers who had him.

Dave Somerville wills his build to Ev Fry.

Bobbie Darr leaves her ability to get along with men to "Flirt" Smith.

Howie King leaves his driving ability to Don Buehler.

Jim Reynolds, Bob Ackerman, and Dave Muckley leave better chances for the girls to the junior boys.

Lydia Gilyard wills her sportsmanship to Gwen Crow.

Johnny Coppola leaves his three dates a night to Bobby Heckman.

Bill Jones gives "Rosie", his car, to the junkman, 'cause no junior could use it.

Bill Horn leaves his red hair to Mr. Booher and Mr. Moore.

Don Butdorf bequeaths an old easy chair to the physics lecture room.

Jim Williams and Dick McKibben will their ability to get locked in the band room to Bobby Igoe.

Willie McKee wills his pool cue to the trophy case.

Norma Newstetter leaves her constancy of being framed to the picture of Lura B. Kean in the Library.

Section III

Ditto Section II

Tressa Hamlin wills her temper to Paul Spangler.

Sarah Budd leaves her Toni Home Permanent to Tony Di Giacomo.

Donna Mae Jolliff wills her love of Shearer things to the wild and wooly West.

Billy Joe Carlton leaves his pipe to the school furnace in case of a breakdown.

Sally Elder wills her changing mind to Les Johnson.

Bernie Engman leaves her decided bachelorship to Ann Heise.

Herby Slater leaves his clockwatching to anyone else who can tell time.

Joanne Johns wills her laghter to Phil Gurr.

Pete Hayden leaves his laziness to Paul Watson.

Sam Gasbarre leaves his sunny smile to Patty Arnette, Glorene Walmer, and Dick Kane's sunlamps to help them out a little more.

Annual Staffs always leave buckets of aspirin, ice bags, old headaches, and tired dispositions to Miss Nesbitt and Mr. Moore for next year.

ONE OF OHIO'S LARGEST INDUSTRIAL FAMILIES

. . . And Why

The more than 18,000 men and women who are producing Timken bearings, fine alloy steel, and rock bits in many plants throughout Ohio make up one of the state's largest industrial families.

We're proud of this fact because it proves once more that the competitive free enterprise system is the greatest in the world.

Under any other, such as Communism, Socialism, Marxism, or Fascism the Timken enterprise could not have grown from a handful of men into a great multitude of people joined together for a single purpose: to make a profit. In fact, under any other system it is doubtful if the enterprise could have even begun.

To gain a profit, 22,000 American men and women have invested their savings in the Timken enterprise.

To gain a profit, more than 18,000 American men and women are busy giving the best that is in them to turn out the finest possible products.

Because they profit by it, thousands of customers continue to buy Timken products in ever-increasing quantities.

But strangely enough, the profit motive of late has taken on the nature of something evil, bad, anti-social.

Yet profit is the reason why America is the most prosperous and powerful nation ever known. Under the free enterprise profit and loss system we have produced more goods for more people at a low cost than any nation in the history of man.

* * *

Yes, we believe in the profit motive. We believe in a better product at the lowest cost consistent with a policy of steady employment at good pay and a fair return to investors for the use of their funds. And because we have always believed in it the Timken industrial family is one of Ohio's largest.

THE TIMKEN ROLLER BEARING COMPANY, CANTON, OHIO

"TO MAKE THE BEST BEARINGS . . . THE BEST STEEL . . . THE BEST ROCK BITS WITH THE BEST PEOPLE WORKING UNDER THE BEST CONDITIONS!" That is our aim at Timken

have always had good class presidents. Roger Derr headed our class in the sophomore year, Jerry Bradford in the junior year, and when we were seniors, Bob Ackerman was prexy. The year of the Bradford administration was one of the most important for that year we were juniors, and in charge of the prom. That was the year the Fruhstuck Four, that jolly little German breakfast club, was inaugurated.—And then the radio station to end all radio stations was started. WWST opened for business, and four days later, its tower blew down. At any rate, in order not to be left behind, as the rest of the world moved ahead, Wooster High started its own WHSV. That, too, was the year we had the Junior Class Radio Jamboree, a rip-roarin', bang-up success, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Ward Konkle, class adviser and emcee. The profits helped earn money for our never-to-be-forgotten prom. Phyllis Johnson, junior class social chairman, dubbed the auditorium the S. S. Prom and on prom night the whole stage was on ship-board, complete with fog horns. That year junior prom attendants were Patti Cohan, Jim Steiner, Margie Schreiner, Bob Ackerman, Bobbie Hunter, and Bob Davies.

"In our junior year that Frenchman started almost more controversy than he could handle by decreeing that long skirts with the 'New Look' were most fashionable. As I think back, it seems like quite a far cry from our frosh years when short, short skirts and baggy sweaters were best. I seem to recall that pell-mell coats with names scrawled on them were all the rage then,too. In our sophomore year a 'forgetful soul' 'accidentally' left the band room windows open, the pipes froze, and school was called off for the day. Our senior year was blessed with only one snow deep enough for tobogganing; almost more benefit candy sales than we could afford; and longer skirts than ever. New courses offered during our last year of school were personal typing, journalism, debate, interpretive speech, and a course in family relations. All promised to be successful.

"During our four years of high school Wooster lost two able, well-liked school leaders. When we were sophomores Superintendent C. M. Layton died and in our senior year Mr. Vernon Smucker, who had retired from his post as principal when we were sophomores, passed away. Our whole class was saddened by the death of one of its members, Polly Blankenship, who died when we were seniors."

Speaker of the Senate: "Will the representative of Ohio yield? I can't stand much more of this."
Hays: "Sir, I have not finished. We were graduated in June, 1949, leaving behind numerous relics of our presence and taking with us memories we shall never forget. Sir, will you pass my bill?"

Speaker: "We can do nothing but yield. We are most horribly defeated."
Announcer: "Thus Franklin Filibuster Hays broke the world's filibuster record by orating on his school days. This is perhaps the first time anyone has ever made history with history."
